Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 434 pages. The story begins in Boston with a robbery, then quickly moves to Paris. Its 1970, the height of the Vietnam War; a troubled time of death, destruction and social disorder. It is a tale of two men; one a young man whos lottery number allowed him to avoid the draft, and the other one who had no choice. That man did serve with honor for two tours, but a violent act forced him to desert and buy a new identity. These two young men meet deep in the bowls of the Paris Metro. Sonny Havens, the soldier introduces Sean to a world Sean had not known. , full of all kinds of characters. Through Sonny, Sean discovers the city and its inhabitants, from its dirty streets rough neighborhoods and little secrets, to its elite and privileged. And with this introduction Sean is forced to make hard choices in learning Lifes lessons. He discovers love and betrayal and it is his betrayal of his best friend and mentor Sonny, that obliges him to return to America some thirty years later to ask someone else from his past for forgiveness.
