By Gwen Keys

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Priscilla Knitting Book For many practical purposes sweaters seem to have an increased rather than a diminished hold. The one given below is for a 34 or 36 inch bust. Golf yarn with No.9 needles seems to give about four stitches to the inch; No. 14 needles are needed for the neck. Whatever the number of needles, you need to get about four stitches to the inch, or perhaps nine stitches to the two inches in width, and six stitches to one inch of the finer needles. For the 36-inch bust you must get four stitches to the inch; for 34-inch, you may get nine stitches to two inches. Cast on 70 stitches. Note. - In writing up this sweater there is nothing said as to the ribbing, etc., as that may be done in any way desired. The manner of working is given. An odd stitch or two can be added, if needed, for ribbing, etc. The line of fine knitting at waist may be omitted if preferred, and the two inches worked...
