MODERN ENGLISH CLASSICAL POETRY

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1996. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xii+256pp The idea of temporal change is important in literary history. We have a sense that one work leads to another, that one artist influences another, that we can discern stages in development and ever-changing pattern of artistic progression. While the operation of the classical and romantic strains have been continuous in English Poetry, and both the strains have at times operated simultaneously in the same author, the same text, these...
