President Roberts: Dr. Ward has the floor for a minute. Dr. Ward: I do not want to anticipate what I am going to say to-morrow, but last year it was my privilege, by the courtesy of the Executive Committee, who sent me to Hartford, to attend the annual meeting of the Connecticut Pomological Society, and I will say right here to you. they will beat us all to pieces. We are not in it with the Connecticut Pomological Society. During that two days session, they had ushers constantly passing up and down soliciting visitors to become members of that, society, and it was astonishing the number that were in that audience who joined the Connecticut Pomological Society, a society similar to ours. We come here, we sit down and take it all in, but we do not take a dollar s worth in. We go away, and sometimes, out of the courtesy of the society we will send a copy of our transactions, which is against the rules of the society. Now, by paying one dollar, you can become a member, and take in all that comes from the society. Mr. Skillman: You might explain that it does not mean a dollar a year. Dr. Ward: No, it does not mean a dollar a year. But, if it is...
