A career as a nail technician offers a range of benefits to meet almost all lifestyles. But what does a nail technician actually do and how do you become one? A nail technician is a trained professional working in the health and beauty industry who works to take care of, decorate and improve a client's nails. Nail technicians perform manicures - dealing with the nails on the hands, and pedicures - dealing with the nails on the feet. Most nail technicians also offer hand or foot massages as part of their treatments. A nail technician does not just shape and decorate a client's nails - they are also responsible for the health of their client's nails as well. A nail technician must also be...
