He is required, of course, to be warmly covered in cold weather and always kept out of a draught. From personal experience, I can testify that the sleeping part is not a hardship. But however warmly clad and well protected from the winds, to sit alone through a cold day from early morning until bedtime, excepting half hours for meals, is a severe trial of any one's patience and philosophy. To relieve the dreariness of it, as well as to give instruction and assistance to those afflicted with the disease, neighborhood sanatoria day-camps have been established in some cities, where they are received and cared for during the day; and when night comes, they go home. Nutritious Feeding is insisted upon almost...
