Excerpt: .the state of the soul, and plainly shews the whole turn of your mind. If our blessed Lord used to pray early before day; if he spent whole nights in prayer; if the devout Anna was day and night in the temple: if St. Paul and Silas at midnight sang praises unto God; if the primitive Christians, for several hundred years, beside their hours of prayer in the day-time, met publicly in the churches at midnight, to join in psalms and prayers, is it not certain that these practices shewed the state-of their hearts? are they not so many plain proofs of the whole turn of their minds.-And if you live in a contrary state, wasting great part of every day in sleep, thinking any time soon enough to be at your prayers; is it not equally certain, that this practice as much shews...
